Arts Council Silicon Valley Names Sue Stokke, Director of Finance

SAN JOSE, CA — July 12, 2011 — Arts Council Silicon Valley today announced that Sue Stokke has been promoted to the position of Director of Finance. In this role, Stokke will oversee all Finance, Operations and HR functions for the organization. She came to the Arts Council in 2001 after working in numerous accounting-related roles in the for-profit sector. Since joining ACSV she has served in multiple finance-related capacities most recently as Interim Director of Finance. In addition to her position at the Arts Council, Stokke serves as President for the Silicon Valley Chapter of the Accounting Society of Women Accountants (ASWA). A graduate of San Jose State University she holds a BS in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting.

“In her new role as Director of Finance, Sue brings not only 15 years of direct financial background and experience but deep knowledge about the Arts Council as well,” said Nancy Glaze, Executive Director, Arts Council Silicon Valley. “She is a true asset to the organization and we are delighted to have her serve in this new capacity.”
